

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to
air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election
is a clear example
of gross media
partisanship and of
the dangers of media
consolidation.

Sinclair uses the
public airwaves free
of charge, and is
obligated by law to serve the public interest. A politically biased
smear campaign does
not serve our community nor our
country. The FCC
has the power to stop Sinclair from proceeding with its intended illegal and
immoral act.

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license
renewal process
needs to involve
more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
